WHAT ARE WALKING TACOS?

Walking tacos are where you take a snack sized bag of Fritos (or any type of chips) and crush them up. Open the bag and fill it with taco meat and all of your favorite taco toppings. Then you're free to roam, work the crowd, or watch TV without being tied down to a table. The best part is that there are no plates and easy cleanup!

A Dash of Derby Details

The first Saturday in May hosts the longest-running sporting event in the country, the Kentucky Derby. Since 1875, jockeys and their horses have been gathering at the Churchill Downs racecourse in Louisville for a 1 1/4-mile dash to the finish line. Saddle up for these fun facts about the competition:

- Thoroughbreds that enter the race must be 3 years old.
- A blanket of roses is draped over the winner, providing the race's famous nickname "The Run for the Roses." Made of more than 400 roses, the blanket weighs about 40 pounds.
- Because of the typical time it takes a horse to run the course, another moniker for the race is "The Most Exciting Two Minutes in Sports."
- Secretariat, who won the race in 1973, still holds the record for the fastest Derby finish at 1:59.4. The 2010 film "Secretariat" tells the inspiring tale about the horse and his owner, Penny Chenery.
- Horse names cannot exceed 18 characters or contain horse terms, such as "filly" or "stallion."
- The current purse for the Derby is $3 million, with $1.86 million going to the first-place winner.
- Starting lanes No. 5 and No. 10 are the luckiest. Riders in these posts have won more times than those in other lanes.
- The mid-1960s brought a new tradition for women attending the event—wearing large, fancy hats.
- The 1892 Kentucky Derby only saw three horses race; today, 20 horses compete.
- The official drink of the Derby is the mint julep.
