Family, Food, & Fun!

Every year, the Augusta County Fair brings the community together to highlight the county's local, agricultural industry, blending in fun, educational experiences, and modern entertainment.

From livestock judging, to acrobats, illusions, laser tag, and globally diverse cultures, everyone gets a bird's-eye view of the great big world while enjoying first class entertainment.

Kids receive multicultural, interactive experiences and the ability to learn about the world without leaving the community!

The Fair's educational events spark their imaginations while teaching! The Fair provides diverse, family entertainment and supports the community and local businesses! The Augusta County Fair works diligently to maintain affordable admission and high quality entertainment so families can provide this experience for their children.

It is fun, fellowship, food, and a chance to catch up with old friends and make new ones while learning something new!

2023 Levitt AMP Harrisonburg

Get ready to AMP up Harrisonburg! Here is the July music lineup for the 2023 Levitt AMP Harrisonburg Music Series!

Flor De Toloache July 12 at 6 PM

Mariachi: Latin Grammy®-winning, all-female group, Flor de Toloache mixes tradition and innovation, breaking boundaries with their edgy, versatile, and fresh take on traditional, Latin American music. Their diverse ethnicities and musical backgrounds transcend culture and gender by forging new paths.

Aaron Lee Tasjan July 19 at 6 PM

Indie Rock: Grammy-nominated songwriter, and Interstellar Pop recording artist, Aaron Lee Tasjan, Nashville's own synth-glam-rock-indie stalwart, is putting the finishing touches on his new album, "Interstellar Pop," due out in early 2024, a striking collection of hyper pop, indie rock, '80s synths and angular guitars.

Phillip-Michael Scales July 26 at 6 PM

Dive Bar Soul: Phillip-Michael was born in Michigan, forged in Chicago, and now lives in Nashville, TN. He grew up with B.B. King calling him "nephew" and calls his music "Dive Bar Soul," a blend of Indie Rock storytelling and the passion of the blues.

What's Cooking

Baja Fish Taco Bowls

Light yet satisfying, this protein bowl is a quick and tasty summer meal.

Ingredients:

- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 4 fillets of white fish, such as tilapia, cod or halibut
- 1 teaspoon Cajun seasoning
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup plain Greek yogurt
- 1 tablespoon lime zest
- 1 teaspoon lime juice
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cumin
- 3 cups cooked quinoa
- 4 cups baby spinach or kale
- 1 avocado, sliced

Directions:

Heat oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Season fish with Cajun seasoning and salt. Cook 2 to 3 minutes per side, or until fish is lightly browned and flakes easily with a fork. Set aside.

In a small bowl, combine yogurt, lime zest, lime juice and cumin.

In a medium bowl, toss cooked quinoa with spinach or kale. Divide between four serving bowls. Top each with fish, sliced avocado and yogurt sauce.

Wit & Wisdom

"Life's a party. Invite yourself."
—Gary Johnson

"I don't need a fancy party to be happy. Just good friends, good food and good laughs. I'm happy. I'm satisfied. I'm content."
—Maria Sharapova

"Never be the first to arrive at a party or the last to go home, and never, ever be both."
—David Brown

"It's not about going to a party. It's life as a party."
—Diane von Furstenberg

"How little sleep one got at a slumber party is a matter of great pride and an index of the success of the party."
—Elizabeth Radin Simons

"Life is short, wear your party pants."
—Loretta LaRoche

"A party without a cake is just a meeting."
—Julia Child

"Good parties create a temporary youthfulness."
—Mason Cooley

"I am thankful for the mess to clean after a party because it means I have been surrounded by friends."
—Nancie J. Carmody

"Disco music in the '70s was just a call to go wild and party and dance with no thought or conscience or regard for tomorrow."
—Martha Reeves

"When all else fails, throw a party!"
—Eugene Walter
