Recipe

Citrus Watermelonade

Summertime is sweet when you're sipping on this fruity beverage.

Ingredients:

- 1 cup water
- 2 cups sugar
- 6 cups cubed watermelon, seeds and rind removed
- 2 cups orange juice
- 1 cup grapefruit juice
- 3/4 cup lemon juice
- 3/4 cup lime juice
- 2 to 3 medium oranges, peeled and diced
- 1/2 cup fresh mint leaves

Directions:

Combine water and sugar in a small saucepan and heat on low until sugar is dissolved. Refrigerate until chilled.

In a blender, puree 4 cups of the cubed watermelon until smooth. Pour into a larger pitcher. Add the chilled sugar syrup, orange juice, grapefruit juice, lemon juice and lime juice. Stir until well combined.

Add remaining 2 cups of cubed watermelon, diced oranges and mint leaves to pitcher. Refrigerate for 2 hours. Serve over ice and garnish with an orange slice and fresh mint.

Wit & Wisdom

"My connection to the Earth is reinforced through the rhythm of the waves."

—Mike Dolan

"Life is strong and fragile. It's a paradox ... It's a particle and a wave at the same time. It all exists all together."

—Joan Jett

"If you want to enjoy good music, watch the faces of those who are listening to it, and try to compute the thousands of memories that never ride anything but sound waves."

—Henry Stanley Haskins

"Life is a series of waves to be embraced and overcome."

—Danny Meyer

"Meditation is like going to the bottom of the sea, where everything is calm and tranquil. On the surface there may be a multitude of waves, but the sea is not affected below."

—Sri Chinmoy

"The boisterous sea of liberty is never without a wave."

—Thomas Jefferson

"I pray to be like the ocean, with soft currents, maybe waves at times. More and more, I want the consistency rather than the highs and the lows."

—Drew Barrymore

"Beauty sleeps on the calm dreamy bosom of the ocean, or lives in the dance of its wild waves."

—Thomas Clark Henley

"The winds and the waves are always on the side of the ablest navigators."

—Edward Gibbon
