Coffee & Conversation: 11/14

Coffee & Conversation happens in the Clubhouse at 10am on the 2nd Tuesday of every month!

Family Games for After the Feast

The dishes are done, the leftovers are put away, and now is the time for a slice of pie and some good old-fashioned fun. These party games are sure to score big points at holiday gatherings.

Charades. This classic activity requires players to silently act out a word or phrase for their teammates to guess before the timer runs out. Add a seasonal spin by suggesting festive phrases to guess, such as “turkey” or “parade.”

Who am I? Write down the names of famous people, real or fictional, on sticky notes. On each player’s turn, they blindly choose a sticky note to place on their forehead. The other players must give clues to help the person guess the mystery identity. Simple, but silly!

Blindfolded sketch. Giggle till you gobble by blindfolding players and instructing them to draw a turkey on a piece of paper. Give step-by-step directions, and award points for every body part that’s in the right spot!

Board and card games. The classics rarely disappoint. Pull out board games you have on hand and vote on which one to play. A deck of cards provides endless opportunities for group fun, from crazy eights to rummy to spoons.

A to Z gratitude. Go around the table and have each person share something they’re thankful for, but it has to start with the next letter of the alphabet. Continue until all letters have been used.

Delightful Fall Films

A chilly breeze, warm cup of cocoa, cinnamon scents and colorful foliage—there’s just something about autumn that makes a cozy night in with a blanket and a movie sound extra appealing. So settle in and queue up one of these fall films:

“Knives Out.” This 2019 flick brings out all the fall vibes with rainy weather, falling leaves and sweaters galore. This whodunit stars Chris Evans, Daniel Craig and Jamie Lee Curtis. Can you weave through the twisted family ties to find the guilty party?

Veterans Day Parade Sunday, November 5th 3-4pm

Harrisonburg Downtown Renaissance is delighted to be bringing back an in-person celebration of those, past and present, who have made our nation’s freedom possible with the Veterans Parade on Sunday, November 5, from 3 – 4 PM. We are looking forward to gathering with friends and neighbors to celebrate and honor our local veterans.

“Remember the Titans.” For sports fans, fall equals football. Released in 2000 and based on true events from 1971, this movie tells the story of a newly integrated high school football team.

“Coco.” Grab a box of tissues for this heartfelt animated musical from 2017. A 12-year-old boy named Miguel celebrates the Mexican holiday Día de los Muertos, or Day of the Dead, by embarking on a magical journey to meet his ancestors and fulfill his dream of becoming a musician.

“Planes, Trains and Automobiles.” A rushed road trip never runs smoothly, especially if you have two days to get from New York to Chicago amidst snowy storms. Tag along with Neal (Steve Martin) and Del (John Candy) in this 1987 comedy to see if they can make it home in time for Thanksgiving dinner.

Laugh Lines: Giggle Till You Gobble!

Q: What did the turkey say to the computer?

A: “Google, Google!”

Q: Why didn’t the band play on Thanksgiving Day?

A: Because somebody ate the drumsticks!

Q: What’s a turkey’s favorite dessert?

A: Cherry gobbler!

Q: Why did the turkey go out in the rain?

A: Because turkeys love fowl weather!

Q: What sound does a turkey’s phone make?

A: “Wing, wing!”

Q: If an apple comes from an apple tree, where do turkeys come from?

A: A poul-tree.
